QUINCEAÑERA

Quinceañera is a traditional Latino celebration of a young woman's 15th birthday, marking her passage from childhood to womanhood. The celebration begins with a religious ceremony and is followed by a large reception.

Traditionally the celebrant or Quinceañera wears an extravagant white or pale pink gown, although she may choose any color she wishes.

The Quinceañera's escort can wear either a black or white tuxedo depending on personal taste. He can choose accessories such as cummerbund, vest, bow tie and top hat, to match and accent her dress.

The Quinceañera's court traditionally has consisted of fourteen girls (damas) and fourteen boys (chamberlanes); each representing a year of the Quinceañera's life. Today, seven couples are more common. The damas wear matching dresses which are most often pastel pink, light blue or lavender. The chamberlanes wear matching tuxedos which are usually black or white with accessories such as cummerbunds or vests to match the damas' dresses. Young children are often invited to participate, and can easily be accommodated with boys sizing in all our styles.

Q&A

Should I rent shoes?

A shiny shoe should always be worn with men's formalwear. This completes the tuxedo and adds consistency to the wedding party. We offer the latest shoe styles, now in sizes up to 18.

SHIRT MEASUREMENT GUIDE

NECK: Place tape around neck at the level where the shirt collar would button. With two fingers under the tape (index and middle fingers together) determine neck size. Take mental note of the measurement. Do not pull the tape too tight and be sure the customer is comfortable.

SHIRT SLEEVE LENGTH: Starting the tape just below the back of the neck at the center of the spine, place the tape over the shoulder and then down the arm over the elbow to a point of approximately 1" past the wrist bone. Always measure longer rather than short, since the sleeve button and/or cuff link will prevent the sleeve from being too long. Remember, our shirts end on the odd length only.

COAT AND PANT MEASUREMENT GUIDE

CHEST MEASUREMENT: Ask the gentlemen being measured to raise his arms outward to the side while you place the measuring tape under his arms, over the back shoulder blades, and over the broadest part of the chest. The gentlemen may then relax his arms while you hold the tape snug with two fingers under the tape.

OVERARM MEASUREMENT: Ask the gentlemen to keep his arms down at his side while you place the measuring tape exactly in the same place as the chest measurement you just took, but include the arms in this measurement.

WAIST MEASUREMENT: Place the tape around the gentlemen's waist just below the navel. This is the height at which formal trousers are worn. Make sure tape is snug and ask customer if this is comfortable for him. Asking the customer what trouser size he wears may confirm the waist size for you (unless the customer usually wears the waist very low).

HIP MEASUREMENT: Place tape around the broadest part of the customer's hip. Make sure the tape is snug and over the widest part of the backside. Refer to trouser chart on next page for maximum hip per waist.

OUTSEAM MEASURING: With the customer standing straight, looking forward and legs slightly apart, place the start of the tape at the side of the waist, level to the navel. Straighten the tape down the side of the leg until you reach the top of the heel of your customer's dress shoe. This is the correct outseam measurement to record. If the customer is not wearing a dress shoe, it is best to have them remove their shoes and simply measure to the floor as shown.

COAT SIZE CHART

INSTRUCTIONS: Measurement theory dictates that in determining coat size, one must fit and focus on the largest part of the body. The coat size matrix is three parts:

- UPPER BODY is diagnosed with chest and overarm measurements
- MID BODY is fitted with the waist measurement
- LOWER BODY is ascertained through the hip measurement

Use the chart to assist in determining coat size. The chart is one aspect of the process. Keep in mind that product knowledge and trying on a coat truly aid in the finalization of a coat size.

TIPS ON MEASURING BOYS

When measuring boys, make sure you have all the sizes recorded including height, weight, as these are as important as chest and waist. Also ask the age of the child. It often corresponds to the coat size. The Boys Coat Size Chart may help in approximating coat size. If the boy's waist is the only measurement that would require a larger tuxedo size than the rest of the measurements, consider Style #700N in a Husky Fit.

Please Note: There is only one sleeve length per neck size for boys shirts. See "Boys Coat Size Chart".

Boys pants will adjust for only two sizes in the following ranges: 18-19, 20-21, 22-23, 24-25, 26-27 & 28-29.

If the boy's measurements are smaller than those for tuxedo size 3, consider buying one of our Infant Tuxedos.

Boys shoes are available in whole sizes only.
